MoMA'S 2018 PARTY IN THE GARDEN AFTER-PARTY TO FEATURE A LIVE PERFORMANCE BY ST. VINCENT ON MAY 31

NEW YORK, May 2, 2018—The Museum of Modern Art's Party in the Garden After-Party features a performance by Grammy-winning artist St. Vincent in the Agnes Gund Garden Lobby, with DJ sets by SIMIHAZE and Sofi Tukker. This year's Party in the Garden honors philanthropist Agnes Gund, celebrating her contributions as art patron, collector, arts education and social justice advocate, and longtime trustee of The Museum of Modern Art.

Annie Clark, aka St. Vincent, is a Grammy Award-winning artist who is critically acclaimed the world over. Her fearless and consistent innovation has moved the likes of the NME to hail her as "the closest thing that our generation has to David Bowie." St. Vincent's singular output ranges from emotive ballads to upbeat pop arrangements, incorporating postmodern guitar solos and electronic pulses, all infused with a sweetly sinister sensibility. Her latest album, MASSEDUCTION, was released in late 2017 and was named #1 Album of the Year by The New York Times and The Guardian. St. Vincent has also collaborated with David Byrne, recently released her signature Ernie Ball Music Man guitar, and made her directorial debut with the short horror film The Birthday Party.

This year's After-Party will feature a special host committee including: Derrick Adams, Sarah Arison and Thomas Wilhelm, Paul Arnhold, Zoë Buckman, Sophia Cohen, Alex Da Corte, Selby Drummond, Casey Fremont, Ruthie Friedlander, Wes Gordon, Mark Guiducci, Laura de Gunzburg, Constance Jablonski, Abbi Jacobson, KAWS, Susi Kenna, Leandra Medine, José Parlá, Bettina Prentice, Nicky Rothschild, Chrissy Rutherford, Thor Shannon, Rickie De Sole, Hank Willis Thomas, and Elaine Welteroth.

#PartyInTheGarden benefits MoMA's Annual Fund and the maintenance of The Abby Aldrich Rockefeller Sculpture Garden. The event also supports the Museum's general operating fund, helping to make possible the MoMA's education programs and the care, study, and maintenance of its collection. Tables at the dinner range from $25,000 to $100,000, with individual tickets beginning at $2,500. Tickets to the After-Party only are $250 in advance and $250 at the door. Tables and tickets can be purchased by visiting moma.org/partyinthegarden2018, calling MoMA's Department of Special Programming and Events at (212) 708-9680, or e-mailing specialevents@moma.org. Party in the Garden is made possible by Carolina Herrera, the New York-based fashion house recognized for creating beautifully crafted collections synonymous with impeccable style and bold elegance.
